

111 one eleven cigarettes

Three Friendly Gentlemen

Made to Suit Your Taste

We have for years catered to the cigarette smokers of America.

With this experience, we created One Eleven—"111"—"Made to Suit Your Taste," of the world's three greatest cigarette tobaccos—

- 1—TURKISH, for Aroma
- 1—VIRGINIA, for Mildness
- 1—BURLEY, for Mellowness

We named them One Eleven—the address of our home office. We are proud of their success.

COOKEVILLE R. 7.

Mrs. Allen Lynn is some better.

Newton Phillips has pneumonia fever.

T. G. Phillips is no better.

Rev. Malone preached at West last Sunday.

The Dotson Branch Telephone Company had a business meeting last Saturday to consider whether they would disconnect their trunk lines from Burristown, Leon and Roaring river, on account of their being connected directly with the Gainesboro Co., and Roaring river being indirectly connected. The Company give them until 3 o'clock the same day and they failed to take loose from Gainesboro connection, so they were cut off at the Dotson Branch board, and we now have no connection with any exchange only by Cookeville. We would like to take back Leon, Burristown and Roaring River if they will cut loose from the Home at Gainesboro, as it has gone in with the Gainesboro Telephone Co.

Sam Hensley will move to the Mat McKinley farm right soon. The farm is now owned by Morrison Maberry.

J. J. Gentry is some better.

Davis Maberry has bought the Sam Henly farm.

J. C. Wilmoth has commenced sawing again.

W. C. Hix still wants all that's coming to him, so Jim Griss reports.

G. W. Roberts, 89, the oldest person in this part, gets about pretty lively for his age.

Mrs. Jim Gentry is on the convalescent list.

Thomas Allen, our genial miller, was out on business Saturday.

Leon Gentry and wife visited in Overton county last Sunday.

INFANT DIES.

On Thursday morning January 12th, 1922, our only and dearly beloved boy, Charles Henry, age 4 months and one day, was taken suddenly ill and died a few hours later. He was apparently well Wednesday night and was laughing and playing with his grandfather before he retired. Dr. Harry Lee, formerly of Jackson County, was called, but our boy died within an hour after he arrived. Charles was a sweet little baby, always smiling, as a number of you people in Jackson County know. It is with great sorrow we give him up. Funeral service was held at the home of his grandfather's, J. W. Cherry, Friday morning at 10 o'clock, and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery near the home.

His bereaved parents, W. H. Carnahan and wife.
